Freed on Bond of $35,000 Furnished by Surety Company After State Gave Notice of Appeal.

New York, July 17.-Harry K. Thaw adjudged sane by a jury, was given his freedom by Supreme Court Justice Peter A. Hendrick, who announced that he had adopted the jury's verdict. The state immediately served notice of appeal, and Justice Hendrick fixed Thaw's bail at $35,000 to insure his presence at future proceedings. Bond was furnished by a surety company.

In announcing his decision Justice Hendrick took occasion to comment unfavorably upon the action of alienists who had assisted the state in preparing the case and then appeared as "I have reached a decision in this case," Justice Hendrick said, "and it is based on my own mind, fortified by the action of the jury."

Thaw, sitting comfortably in his chair, his counsel on each side, his mother and his sister a few feet behind him, showed his pleasure and anticipated the court's decision with a broad smile.

GERMAN NOTE OF APOLOGY.

Washington, July 17.-Although officials were pleased by receipt of a memorandum from Ambassador Gerard formally transmitting Germany's admission of liability and expression of regret for the attack by a German submarine on the American steamer Nebraskan, they practically decided that the legal points raised by the incident would require the dispatch of a note on the subject further to conserve American rights in the war zone.

Legal officers of the American government, who examined the German memorandum, pointed out that in many respects the case resembled that of the William P. Frye, an American ship sunk by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich.
